Pineola Cough Balsam

is excellent for throat inflammations and for asthma. Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use, as it quickly soothes the cough, renders expectoration easy, assisting nature in restoring wasted tissues. There is a large percentage of those who suppose their cases to be consumption who are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep-seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 50c. per bottle; Pineola Balsam, 25c. at Druggists. In quantities of $2.50 will deliver on receipt of amount. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York.

WEDDING AT THE PLAINS.

The marriage of Miss Nena Carter, daughter of Capt. Ed. Carter and grand daughter of the late Ed. C. Turner, to Mr. Christian Heineken, of Prince William county, was celebrated at Grace Episcopal Church, The Plains, on the 23d instant. The church was decorated in a most gorgeous manner. The evergreens and flowers covering the chancel and surroundings were arranged in a most artistic and tasteful manner, interspersed with flags, beautifully representing a snow scene. The lectern reading desk and rear of chancel surmounted with high circular frames, were covered with evergreens, the centre formed into a diamond shape were filled with pyramids of lighted wax candles producing a most brilliant effect. At the hour of three, thirty of Fauquier's loveliest young ladies were ushered into the church, draped in most becoming evening costumes and took their position on each side of the aisle. Upon the approach of the bride the signal was given and the organ, presided over by Miss Peake, burst forth in grand melody, the Lohengrin march being sung by Misses Beverly, Turner and Meade. At the same time the ladies glided singly past the altar, first to the right then to the left down the side aisles, uniting at the door and meeting the bride and escorting her to the altar where they again separated, and formed a guard of honor upon each side, the bride following upon the arm of her father, preceded by her maid of honor, the lovely Miss Margaretta Turner, the groom meeting her at the altar, attended by his best man, H. Heineken, brother of the groom. The bride, a handsome brunette, was attired in a superb white silk, her veil being caught with diamond ornaments, surmounted by a wreath of hyacinths; she carried a bouquet of hot house flowers and ferns. After the beautiful and impressive ceremony by Rev. J. J. Norwood, the company dispersed to the strains of Mendelssohn's march. They immediately repaired to the spacious and handsome residence of Mr. Jas. R. Foster, brother-in-law of the bride, where they were most hospitably and elegantly entertained and refreshed with the choicest delicacies of the season. After spending a most enjoyable hour with the delightful hostess the company departed, carrying with them the remembrance of the handsomest and most distinguished wedding it has ever been their privilege to witness. The Plains, Jan. 3.

ESCAPED FROM THE CONSTABLE.

Fenton Brown, a well-known old colored well-digger, stole a blanket and some other things from Mr. James P. Machen, near Centreville, a short while ago, and was arrested by Constable Green, but managed to unhorse that gentleman and escape. After getting Mr. Green off the horse, Brown who is a powerful man, threw him to the ground and was making a savage attack upon him when two young colored men, the sons of Asbury Robinson, went to the constable's assistance. Brown drew a revolver and ran them off and then made his escape before Mr. Green could recover his revolver, which he had thrown away during the scuffle, and re-arrest him. He is still at large.—Fairfax Herald.

A COLORED BRIDEGROOM IN JAIL.

Benjamin Harris, colored, from near Sideburn station, was married on Sunday, the 22d ult., to the object of his affections. This new relation imposed new responsibilities and expense, and he proceeded to replenish his larder and his pocketbook by borrowing, one dark night during the week, some fowls from the roost of Mr. Charles Taylor. Some of the poultry was sold to Mr. Jeff. Elgin and subsequently recognized by Mr. Taylor. Harris was arrested by Constable Peter Magner, jr., and committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury.—Fairfax Herald.

Not a few who read what Mr. Robert Rowles, of Hollands, Va., has to say below, will remember their own experience under like circumstances: "Last winter I had a gripe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so far relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by L. Stabler & Co., druggists.

Dr. Shields, an eminent physician of Tennessee, says: "I regard Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood medicine on earth, and I know of many wonderful cures effected by its use." Physicians all over the land have made similar statements.
